Wild Swing To the Button Stops Rielly

Erstwhile Conqueror

Mike Rielly's elimination in the state amateur boxing championships held at Madison Square Garden last night at the hands of Jack Carter, a dusky battler, who has no particular club affliation, came like a bolt from the blue. Carter, who was previously knocked out by Rielly, decided that if he was to win he would have to do it soon. The negro rushed out and swung a wild right flush on the jaw. Rielly went down, but disdained a count.

Rielly jumped up and started slugging as the crowd cheered madly. Carter was floored three times, but managed to weather the attack and finally knocked out Rielly after forcing the latter to the canvas twice. Referee

Jack Douglas, the West Sider, and Al Carpentier, the United States Navy heavyweight, will battle for the National Guard title this evening, when they hook up over the twelve-round route at the 102d Medical Regiment Armory. It is the first heavyweight bout staged at the armory this year.

Tilden, Richards, Voshell, Williams and Other Net Champions to Play in Title Tournaments in the Land of Palm and Pine Throughout the Winter

By Fred Hawthorne

For years it has been the happy custom of the golfers who could afford the luxury to make an annual tournament tour of the South every winter. Pinehurst, N. C.; White Sulphur Springs, Hot Springs, Palm Beach, Miami, St. Augustine, Belicair and Jacksonville, Fla., have been the meccas of these golfing enthusiasts, and the numbers who play over the Southern courses total thousands. With the first openings of the Northern links these happy adventurers skip back home and start their long into competitive season in the North.
